Women Development Cell Report on "Debate competition"

Women development cell had organized a "Debate competition" on 10th March, 23 at 10.00am in A V Room. The foremost aim of debate Competition is to spread awareness of role & importance of Women in society among students.

Students were very excited and well prepared for the competition as topics were given to students before competition. As there was very tough competition among the participants 3 rounds were conducted and final winners were decided by the competition judges Assistant professor Pooja Shirsherkar, Elakshi Tawade, Ruksar Khan.

Winners were felicitated with gifts and certificates. This activity was conducted by our WDC members under the guidance of WDC in charge Mrs Mona Dedhia.

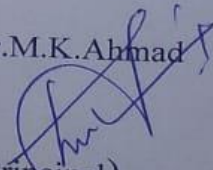

Participants have taken initiative and showed great enthusiasm in making the event successful Total 69 students have participated in the competition.
