Webinar on Gandhi's Principle of Peace

'SALT SATYAGRAHA'

- The Salt Satyagraha was a national movement throughout India that began early in 1930 and lasted for over a year. Its immediate goal was the removal of the salt tax which exploited the peasants and symbolized the unjust nature of British rule. The Salt Act made it a crime to possess salt not purchased by the British salt monopoly.
- Following the initial planning of the specific actions, Gandhi sent a letter to the Viceroy describing the grievances regarding the Salt Act and indicating the specific nature of the plan for civil disobedience. When this ultimatum was ignored, Gandhi and other satyagrahis began their historic march to the sea.
