Clothes Bags Distribution In Slum Area

The clothes bag distribution took place in our college on 15 Dec 2017. the main purpose of the distribution was to "Save Nature Save Earth" our college DLLE students participated in this noble cause. Students prepared the bags at home with their waste home clothes or clothes which was not in use and made it beautifully handmade also machine made for the local society near our college. students also distributed it to the people who live in slum area and also taught them about the reuse of the bags and how to save our mother earth. the distribution didn't stopped here, we also distributed in the small shops and local people living near our college area. There were 28 students who successfully completed the task and also made 31 clothes bags.
