The aforesaid institutions are hereinafter referred to individually as institute and collectively as institutes.

Article 1: GOAL OF THE AGREEMENT:

The goal of this MoU is the exchange of teaching personnel and students between both the institutions and in order to enhance cross-cultural understanding, learning, and sharing of knowledge mainly based on research and skill enhancement between the two institutions through research conferences, faculty development programmes and similar events based on case studies, conclaves, guest sessions, industry interactions and similar events.

Article 2: FACULTY EXCHANGE COORDINATION:

Each institution shall appoint one member of its teaching faculty to coordinate the research related programme on its behalf. Further, a coordination committee consisting of a programme coordinator from the side of St. Joseph College of Arts and Commerce and a programme coordinator from the side of A. E. Kalsekar College of Commerce & Management will periodically review and identify ways to strengthen cooperation between the two institutions.

Article 3: EXCHANGE FACULTY:

- a. The exchange of faculty is for the mutual benefit of both institutions. This collaboration is for teaching and conducting lectures (Online/Offline Mode), research activities, participation in various events, programmes and competitions, exchange of academic materials and publications.
- b. The home institution will submit faculty credentials to the host institution prior to the beginning of each exchange.
- c. Exchange faculty will be employees of the home institution and will be compensated by the home institution. In no event shall the exchange faculty be considered agents, employees or representatives of the host institution.

Article 4: Student Exchange:

- a. Students will be invited for various departmental events and activities.
- b. Students will be entitled to attend special guest lectures on the relevant topics.
- c. Students and faculties of both the colleges will be invited to participate in various research based activities organised in colleges.
- d. Faculties of both colleges will be invited to deliver lectures on the relevant topics in the interest of students.
- e. The parent institution will submit student details to the host institution prior to the start of the exchange program.
- f. Both institutes agree to develop the following collaborative activities in the academic areas of mutual interest, on the basis of equality and reciprocity.
- g. The institutes will share infrastructure facilities.
- h. The institutes will be responsible for smooth conduct of lectures and activities.

Article 5: ADHERENCE TO RULES & REGULATIONS

Participating faculties, staff and students involved in any activities under this memorandum must adhere to the rules and regulations of the institutions.

Article 6: COMPENSATION AND BENEFITS:

Each institution shall also be responsible for its own staff's salaries during the exchange program. The host institution bears no responsibility for providing funds to visiting faculty for any purpose other than those provided to its own faculty to support teaching, e.g., photocopying, telephone, and computer support. Except for salary and benefits, exchange faculty will be eligible for the usual faculty privileges by the host institution.

Article 7: LEGAL EFFECT

Nothing in this memorandum shall be construed as creating any legal relationship between the institutes. This memorandum is a statement of intent to foster genuine and mutually beneficial collaboration.

Article 8: VALIDITY

The Memorandum shall remain in force for a period of THREE YEARS commencing from effective date. Institutions may extend the term by written agreement signed by both after review.

Article 9: AMENDMENTS/MODIFICATIONS

This MoU may be amended or modified by a written agreement signed by the representatives of both institutes.

Article 10: TERMINATION

Either institution may terminate the MoU by giving written notice of six months in advance to the other institution. Once terminated, neither St. Joseph college of Arts and Commerce nor A. E. Kalsekar College of Commerce & Management, will be responsible for any losses, financial or otherwise, which the other institutions may suffer. However, St. Joseph college of Arts and Commerce and A. E. Kalsekar College of Commerce & Management, will ensure that the provisions of this Memorandum shall continue to apply to all activities in progress until their completion.

Any controversy, dispute or difference in relation to this MoU, shall be resolved amicably by both institutions.
