Seminar Report: International Women's Day Celebration by NSS Unit and WDC Cell in A.E. Kalsekar College, Nalasopara
Date : 08/03/2020

The NSS Unit and Women's Development Cell (WDC) of A.E. Kalsekar College in Nalasopara organised a seminar to celebrate International Women's Day. The event aimed to honour and empower women while highlighting the importance of gender equality.

The seminar commenced with an opening speech by the college principal, emphasising the significance of International Women's Day and the need to recognize women's achievements in various spheres of life. The event was attended by students, faculty members, and staff.

The resource persons for the seminar were invited experts who provided valuable insights on women's empowerment and the challenges they face. They shared success stories of women who have made significant contributions to society, inspiring the audience.

Panel discussions and interactive sessions were conducted, encouraging active participation from attendees. The discussions revolved around gender equality, women's rights, and the role of women in leadership positions. Students actively shared their thoughts and experiences, promoting a constructive dialogue on the subject.

The seminar also featured presentations by students and faculty members, showcasing research and projects related to women's issues. Topics such as gender-based violence, women's education, and women's entrepreneurship were explored, shedding light on areas that require attention and improvement.

The NSS Unit and WDC Cell's joint effort in organising the seminar demonstrated the college's commitment to fostering a gender-inclusive environment. By celebrating International Women's Day, the college aimed to create awareness and sensitise the participants about the challenges women face in society.

The seminar concluded with a closing address, emphasising the importance of continued efforts to promote gender equality and empower women. The event served as a catalyst for inspiring action and encouraging the participants to contribute to women's upliftment in their respective roles.

In summary, the seminar on International Women's Day celebrated by the NSS Unit and WDC Cell in A.E. Kalsekar College successfully brought attention to women's rights and empowerment. The event facilitated knowledge sharing, dialogue, and inspiration, reaffirming the college's commitment to creating a gender-equal society.
