The formation of an IPR (Intellectual Property Rights) cell at A.E. Kalsekar College in Nalasopara aims to promote awareness and protection of intellectual property among students and teachers. The process involves:

- Identifying key stakeholders: Faculty, administrators, and legal experts who have an interest in IPR.
- Constituting a core team: Members with knowledge and experience in IPR-related matters.
- Creating a charter: Guidelines outlining the objectives and responsibilities of the IPR cell.
- Organizing workshops and seminars: Educating students and teachers about IPR and its benefits.
- Establishing collaborations: Partnerships with industry professionals and legal experts.
- Providing assistance: Supporting students and faculty in filing patents, copyrights, and trademarks.
- Developing an IPR policy: Addressing ownership, disclosure, and commercialization of intellectual property.
- Regular evaluation: Assessing the impact and making improvements to the IPR cell's activities.
