"Pledge for Non-Violence and Peace"

International Day of Non-Violence', we join the people of the world in their solemn PLEDGE that:

- we shall uphold peace in the world, between individuals and communities;
- we shall uphold a harmonious life with nature;
- we shall uphold truth and justice without fear or prejudice;
- we shall practice mutual love and non-violence in our personal and professional lives;
- we shall respect all human beings equally regardless of caste, creed, colour, language or gender;
- we shall work for the elimination of all instruments of violence;
- we shall not support or resort to violence and intolerance in any circumstance;
- we shall endeavour to resolve all differences through democratic and constitutional means; and,
- we shall endeavour with all our might for creating a world of peace, harmony, justice and equality, love and oneness.

YES TO PEACE

NO TO VIOLENCE

INTRODUCTION

Father of the nation, Mahatma Gandhi was the man of simple living and high thinking. No other eminent leader in the realm of the world history is so much associated with peace and non-violence as is Gandhi. So, we will always remember Bapu as a symbol of peace and truth. Peace was central to Gandhi's political, social and religious philosophy and demonstrated to the world the supreme method of achieving world peace. Mohandas Karamchand Gandhi, popularly known as Bapu, Mahatma Gandhi or father of the nation, was born on 2nd October, 1869 at Porbandar, Gujrat. 2nd October is celebrated as Gandhi Jayanti in India and as 'International Day of Non-Violence' all across the world as he was sermonizer of non-violence throughout his life. He started Satyagraha movement not only for India's freedom but also to resolve all conflict in human life. He is still remembered among us as the symbol of peace and truth.
